Information:
On Thursday, February 25, 2010, at approximately 10:30pm the UC San Diego Police Department received multiple reports of a noose hanging from a bookcase on the 7th floor of the Geisel Library.

The library was searched by officers and library staff. A noose was found hanging on the west side of aisle 3, which faces the windows. The aisle is located in the southwest corner of the 7th floor.

Officers spoke with people who were in the area but no one witnessed the noose being placed on the bookcase. We have received unconfirmed reports that the noose was seen hanging from the bookcase as early as 8:00pm.
